- The headquarters of a unit of the Military Geographical Institute in Prague is located at Tachov (N50/P54) and has [REDACTED] Commanding Officer is Staff Capt. Pavlovsky. The personnel is divided into six military groups, each one composed of six or seven men under the command of a cadet officer. These groups are assigned to the following places:
 - As (N51/P18)
 - Plesna (N51/P39)
 - Broumov (N50/P55)
 - Frantiskovy Lazne (N51/P27)
 - Cheb (N51/P37)
 - Rozvadov (N50/P43)
 - The members of this geographical unit are engaged in correcting longitudinal and latitudinal errors on existing maps of a 1:75,000 scale and in making new surveys by aerial photography. They cover the western border area.
 - Permission for the groups to enter the border area is given by Staff Capt. Pavlovsky. On the rare occasion when one individual works apart from the group, he is given a special permit. A list of the persons receiving permits is sent to the SNB command at Karlovy Vary, which transmits it to all border units. An SNB member always accompanies these geographical groups while they are working.
